Info sheet for Community Picnic on July 12th, 2018

Parking: Limited spots in the Minnesota Opera parking lot across the street, first come first serve.
Do NOT park in the spots reserved for the Lab Theater.
https://mnopera.org/about/minnesota-opera-center/ Street parking is hard to find but there are metered spots along 1st Street. Alternate option if able to walk a couple blocks, park at the North Loop playground parking lot (free, limited to 4 hours) and walk to MN Opera Center directions here.

What to bring: Ice cream, sorbet, drinks, snacks and a few sides will be provided. Bring your own picnic entre and something to share if you can, come and be fed if you can't. We will provide plates, eating utensils, napkins and cups. Please bring your own serving utensil if you bring something to share.

What to expect: This will be an intimate gathering of community that attended Fellow Travelers, staff that was involved in the behind the scene processes and our new CAO Priti Gandhi. We will take time to get to know each other and have group discussion centering MN Opera's Fellow Travelers production, the community engagement efforts around Fellow Travelers and the future of this work. We will be sharing a meal during this conversation.

How to invite more friends and RSVP : Ask them to RSVP here or just attend with you. https://my.mnopera.org/single/PSDetail.aspx?psn=595

Where: Minnesota Opera Center paint shop on the first floor, across from our main entrance and through the scene shop. 620 North First Street, Minneapolis, MN 55401. Someone will be at the door to greet you.

What time: Please arrive by 6pm, leaving ample time ahead to find parking. We will wrap up at 7:30pm.
