

MEDIA ALERT

MINNESOTA OPERA PRESENTS THE LUMINARY ARTS CENTER OPEN HOUSE

WHAT: The new Luminary Arts Center, owned and operated by MN Opera, is now open to be explored. Join Minnesota Opera for a day of food trucks, live music and fun celebrating the Twin Cities' newly reimagined performing arts and event venue. Experience performances from local artists and learn more about rentals and other offerings in a day of community celebration.

WHO: The event will feature three live performances:
12:00 p.m. – STRINGenius quartet and members of the Minnesota Opera Orchestra: Allison Ostrander (violin), Elise Meichels Parker (violin), Emily Hagen (viola), and Rebecca Arons (cello)
1:00 p.m. – Mark Billy (baritone) and Andrew Sun (piano)
2:00 p.m. – Daniel Volovets (guitar) and Joseph Li (piano)

The event will also host food trucks including The Wakey Wakey Food Truck and BLUE MOO Ice Cream.

WHEN: Saturday, August 20, 2022 from 11am-3pm

WHERE: Luminary Arts Center
700 North First Street
Minneapolis, MN 55401

ADMISSION: Admission is free.

CONTACT: Severin Lier
Communications Manager
Minnesota Opera
slier@mnopera.org

###

Minnesota Opera changes lives by bringing together artists, audiences and community, advancing the art of opera for today and for future generations.